

Dear FCC,

I am writing to you today for beg you to NOT repeal net neutrality. Keep all of humankind's shared knowledge and information free! Regulations need to remain in order for all individuals and large as well as small businesses to have equal representation on the internet. In repealing net neutrality, a hierarchy based on wealth will be the gatekeeper of once public information and opinion.

Vote to maintain net neutrality as it is.

Best Regards,

Grant Worth